CLERK US DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BY Rm DEPUTY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JOHN EDWARDS JIMENEZ,

Petitioner,

v.

UNKNOWN,

Respondent.

Civil No. 08-0866 W (POR)

ORDER:

(1) GRANTING APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS; and

(2) DISMISSING CASE WITHOUT PREJUDICE AND WITH LEAVE TO AMEND

Petitioner, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, has submitted a letter which the Court has construed as a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. He has also submitted a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Petitioner has -$3.65 on account at the California correctional institution in which he is presently confined. Petitioner cannot afford the $5.00 filing fee. Thus, the Court GRANTS Petitioner's application to proceed in forma pauperis, and allows Petitioner to prosecute the above-referenced action as a poor person without being required to prepay fees or costs and without being required to post security. The Clerk of the Court shall file the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus without prepayment of the filing fee.

FAILURE TO USE THE PROPER FORM

Additionally, a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus must be submitted in accordance with the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California. See Rule 2(c), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254. In order to comply with the Local Rules, the petition must be submitted upon a court-approved form and in accordance with the instructions approved by the Court. Presently, Petitioner has submitted an application for writ of habeas corpus on a non-approved form.

FAILURE TO NAME PROPER RESPONDENT

Review of the Petition reveals that Petitioner has failed to name a proper respondent. On federal habeas, a state prisoner must name the state officer having custody of him as the respondent. Ortiz-Sandoval v. Gomez, 81 F.3d 891, 894 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Rule 2(a), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254). Federal courts lack personal jurisdiction when a habeas petition fails to name a proper respondent. See id.

The warden is the typical respondent. However, “the rules following section 2254 do not specify the warden.” Id. “[T]he ‘state officer having custody’ may be ‘either the warden of the institution in which the petitioner is incarcerated . . . or the chief officer in charge of state penal institutions.’” Id. (quoting Rule 2(a), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254 advisory committee’s note). If “a petitioner is in custody due to the state action he is challenging, ‘[t]he named respondent shall be the state officer who has official custody of the petitioner (for example, the warden of the prison).’” Id. (quoting Rule 2, 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254 advisory committee’s note).

A long standing rule in the Ninth Circuit holds “that a petitioner may not seek [a writ of] habeas corpus against the State under . . . [whose] authority . . . the petitioner is in custody. The actual person who is [the] custodian [of the petitioner] must be the respondent.” Ashley v. Washington, 394 F.2d 125, 126 (9th Cir. 1968). This requirement exists because a writ of habeas corpus acts upon the custodian of the state prisoner, the person who will produce “the body” if directed to do so by the Court. “Both the warden of a California prison and the Director of Corrections for California have the power to produce the prisoner.” Ortiz-Sandoval, 81 F.3d at 895.

1 Here, Petitioner has not named a respondent. In order for this Court to entertain the
 2 Petition filed in this action, Petitioner must name the warden in charge of the state correctional
 3 facility in which Petitioner is presently confined or the Director of the California Department of 4 Corrections. Brittingham v. United States, 982 F.2d 378, 379 (9th Cir. 1992) (per curiam).

5 FAILURE TO ALLEGE EXHAUSTION OF STATE JUDICIAL REMEDIES

6 Further, habeas petitioners who wish to challenge either their state court conviction or the 7 length of their confinement in state prison, must first exhaust state judicial remedies. 28 U.S.C.
 8 § 2254(b), (c); Granberry v. Greer, 481 U.S. 129, 133-34 (1987). Ordinarily, to satisfy the 9 exhaustion requirement, a petitioner must “fairly present[] his federal claim to the highest state
 10 court with jurisdiction to consider it . . . or . . . demonstrate[] that no state remedy remains
 11 available. Johnson v. Zenon, 88 F.3d 828, 829 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Picard v. Connor, 404
 12 U.S. 270, 275 (1971); Anderson v. Harless, 459 U.S. 4, 6 (1982)). Moreover, to properly
 13 exhaust state court remedies a petitioner must allege, in state court, how one or more of his or 14 her federal rights have been violated. For example, “[i]f a habeas petitioner wishes to claim that
 15 an evidentiary ruling at a state court trial denied him [or her] the due process of law guaranteed
 16 by the Fourteenth Amendment, he [or she] must say so, not only in federal court, but in state
 17 court.” See Duncan v. Henry, 513 U.S. 364, 365-66 (1995)(emphasis added).

18 Nowhere on the Petition does Petitioner allege that he raised his claims in the California
 19 Supreme Court. (See Pet. at 5.) If Petitioner has raised his claims in the California Supreme 20 Court he must so specify.

21 Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases provides for summary dismissal of a 22 habeas petition “[i]f it plainly appears from the face of the petition and any exhibits annexed to 23 it that the petitioner is not entitled to relief in the district court . . .” Rule 4, 28 U.S.C. foll.
 24 § 2254. Here, it appears plain from the Petition that Petitioner is not presently entitled to federal 25 habeas relief because he has not alleged exhaustion of state court remedies.

FAILURE TO STATE A COGNIZABLE FEDERAL CLAIM

Additionally, in accordance with Rule 4 of the rules governing § 2254 cases, Petitioner has failed to allege that his state court conviction or sentence violates the Constitution of the United States.

Title 28, United States Code, § 2254(a), sets forth the following scope of review for federal habeas corpus claims:

The Supreme Court, a Justice thereof, a circuit judge, or a district court shall entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court only on the ground that he is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States.

28 U.S.C. § 2254(a) (emphasis added). See Hernandez v. Ylst, 930 F.2d 714, 719 (9th Cir. 1991); Mannhalt v. Reed, 847 F.2d 576, 579 (9th Cir. 1988); Kealohapauole v. Shimoda, 800 F.2d 1463, 1464-65 (9th Cir. 1986). Thus, to present a cognizable federal habeas corpus claim under § 2254, a state prisoner must allege both that he is in custody pursuant to a “judgment of a State court,” and that he is in custody in “violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States.” See 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a).

Petitioner has not currently presented any claims. Petitioner is advised that in order to present a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254, he must allege that he is in custody in violation of the United States Constitution. 28 U.S.C. § 2254.

ONE-YEAR STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

The Court cautions Petitioner that under the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA) a one-year period of limitation shall apply to a petition for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of:

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

1 (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was
2 initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been
3 newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively
4 applicable to cases on collateral review; or

5 (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or
6 claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise
7 of due diligence.

8 28 U.S.C.A. § 2244(d)(1)(A)-(D) (West Supp. 2002).

9 The statute of limitations does not run while a properly filed state habeas corpus petition
10 is pending. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2); see Nino v. Galaza, 183 F.3d 1003, 1006 (9th Cir. 1999).
11 But see Artuz v. Bennett, 531 U.S. 4, 8 (2000) (holding that “an application is ‘properly filed’
12 when its delivery and acceptance [by the appropriate court officer for placement into the record]
13 are in compliance with the applicable laws and rules governing filings.”). However, absent some 14 other basis for tolling, the statute of limitations does run while a federal habeas petition is 15 pending. Duncan v. Walker, 533 U.S. 167, 181-82 (2001).

16 CONCLUSION

17 For the foregoing reasons, the Court GRANTS Petitioner’s motion to proceed in forma
18 pauperis and DISMISSES this action without prejudice and with leave to amend. To have this
19 case reopened, Petitioner must, no later than July 28, 2008, file a First Amended Petition that 20 cures the pleading deficiencies set forth above. THE CLERK OF COURT IS DIRECTED
21 TO MAIL PETITIONER A BLANK FIRST AMENDED PETITION FORM.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.
